THE "BLOODY SHIRT" BUSINESS.

Since the close of the war and the restoration of political rights to the South this nation has been forced to contemplate many shocking spectacles. At the first, when it could not believe that its unprecedented clemency would have any other effect upon the reconstructed States than to soothe the passions of all classes and foster reconciliation, the early organization of the Ku Klux thrilled it with horror; but still it would not acknowledge, until a long series of well authenticated assassinations compelled recognition, that the daily reports of Southern lawlessness had any other foundation than in the perverted imagination of reckless correspondents. It could not conceive such a base reward for such unparalleled magnanimity, too confident, perhaps, in the strength of its own warm affections. To satisfy that generous nature it had ignored all precedents, thrust aside all policies, deliberately put away all the lessons of history, and conscious only that the war was over and the Union still whole, it had tenderly raised the South from the dust of banishment, and, crying "Thy sins are forgiven thee," joyfully extended the right hand of fellowship. That moment it turned back on the past, forcing down its own sorrows and stilling the desire for revenge. To the astonishment of all Europe, it punished treason with pardon. The rebellion has been vanquished these ten years, but it is well to remember that the North forgave before the South thought of asking.

TROOPS IN THE SOUTH.

At a conference held in Washington yesterday with Secretary Cameron, it was decided to instruct General Ringer to so dispose the troops in South Carolina and other Southern States, that political meetings will be protected from interruption by armed mobs like Butler's bandits. Senator Pallman, of South Carolina, says the only way to get the Union vote out is to hold large meetings at central points, for Republicans would not dare to risk their lives by attempting to meet on the plantations with the negroes. The plan adopted by the armed bands of White-liners, to attend in large numbers, all Republican meetings, and interrupt them by demanding and enforcing a division of time in speaking has in many cases so frightened the negroes that they fear to attend other meetings, and may not have confidence enough to go to the polls and vote. An application has been made for the distribution of a number of companies of United States troops at points throughout Florida, where a great portion of the population are colored. It is claimed that stationing troops there would protect and give a feeling of security, and would secure radiating points whence troops could concentrate at a moment's warning.

ELECTION RESULTS from all but nine towns in Vermont shows Fairbanks' majority over Bingham to be 24,685. The same towns in 1874 gave Peck 995 majority over Bingham. The nine remaining towns in 1874 gave Peck over Bingham 263 majority. Fairbanks' majority in the entire State cannot be far from 25,000. For Lieutenant-Governor, Proctor will probably reach 26,000. The Legislature, as far as heard from, stands: House, 196 Republicans to 30 Democrats; 2 no choice. Thirteen towns to be heard from on the Legislative vote, gave in 1874 9 Republicans and 4 Democrats. The Senate has not a single Democrat. In 1874 there were 59 Democrats in the House and 2 in the Senate.

ROLLS of Half Dollars are now done up in perforated wrappers. It is therefore no longer possible to palm off pieces of lead pipes for $20 rolls. A patent for the wrappers has been applied for.

The north drift in the Consolidated Imperial mine lacks only 40 feet of a connection with the Alpha mine.

AFTER this week, all work will be suspended on the Meadow Valley mine.

OUR COMMERCE WITH TURKEY.

Generally a war in Europe is expected to affect American commerce favorably, but the one now raging in Turkey will be of small account so long as it is confined to the possessions of the Sultan. Turkey buys largely of American arms, but scarcely anything else, the products and materials which she consumes being mostly of a kind that cannot be obtained on this Continent. Her fruits, her meats, her clothing, even her tobacco, are all produced at home, or in more Oriental regions. Our trade with her consists simply of prunes and otto of roses. Of the former we usually receive 15,000 to 20,000 casks a year. Otto of roses is produced on the borders of Bulgaria, and some of the villages devoted to this industry have been destroyed. The opium crop is short, owing to the drought. Our purchase of this commodity from Turkey usually amounts to 160,000 pounds. Otto of roses is quoted in the New York market at $6 25 per ounce, and morphine at $7 25 per pound. The lovers of perfumery will have to use some home-made extract this year, but those whose slumbers depend upon the subtle narcotic, can yet turn their eyes hopefully to Japan and China.

Trouble Brewing.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 8.

All night the colored militia and white clubs remained at their places of rendezvous under arms. A party of passing blacks fired into the armory windows of the Montgomery Guards. The fire was returned by the blacks. Excepting this and two or three other minor disturbances the streets were quiet after midnight. The public feeling continues one of deep uneasiness. The blacks talk of having a torchlight procession to-night. Efforts are being made to prevent it, as trouble will probably grow out of it.

In Pursuit.
